

Arlington Mourns Passing Of Distinguished Town Leader

Hundreds Unite In Paying Final Tribute To Mr. Earl A. Ryder

The Town of Arlington and neighboring communities were deeply shocked and grieved to learn of the sudden passing of Town Clerk Earl A. Ryder, for many years prominent in the town affairs of Arlington. Former Boston and Maine official and a veteran of the Spanish American war, on Sunday morning at the Symmes Arlington Hospital of Cerebral Thrombosis.

Up almost to the time of his death he was at his usual duties at the Town Hall and mingling with friends and associates in his favorite haunts about town.

Town Clerk since 1936, Mr. Ryder was a distinguished member of the Arlington Board of Assessors from the years 1929 to 1936 inclusive. He was one of the town's most active figures in all matters pertaining to the welfare of his home town, and enjoyed the friendship of hundreds of admirers and associates throughout the section. Arlington town flags were placed at half staff in his honor directly after word was received of his passing on Sunday afternoon.

He came to this country when a small boy, and had resided in Arlington since 1898. Born in Iberville, Quebec, he

Body Of Arlington Boy Returned From Pacific

Among the 2554 Americans, including 139 New Englanders, who lost their lives in World War II, and whose bodies have been returned recently from the Pacific area, is that of Lieutenant (J. G.) Edward Paul Clancy, 64 Foster street Arlington, a naval pilot killed in action in Japan on July 10, 1945, while piloting a fighter bomber in combat over southern Tokyo.

Lieutenant Clancy was with the squadron which escorted the late President Roosevelt to the Casablanca and Teheran conferences.

He was the son of Mrs. Anna Clancy, of 64 Foster street. Appropriate military re-burial services will be held following the arrival of the remains.

Teen Agers Enjoy Sadie Hawkins Dance

The Arlington Youth Association enjoyed a Sadie Hawkins dance at the Robbins Town Hall last Friday evening. These dances are sponsored by the Auxiliary Police Association, Jack Keefe, chairman. The hillbilly music drew a large crowd of both teen agers and adults for the square dances, and a unique caller of the dances attracts much favorable comment. The young people were dressed in dungarees and informal clothes, to carry out the spirit of the occasion and both young and old reported a fine time.

To Lecture On Diabetes

Dr. Joseph M. Wadden, president of the staff at the Mount Auburn hospital, has announced a special lecture on the subject of diabetes, to be held on Wednesday, December 8, at 8:30 p.m. in the Margaret Jewett Hall. Diabetes Detection Week is December 6 through 11 and the lecture is open to the public without charge. The featured speaker will be Dr. David Hurwitz, a member of the staff of Mount Auburn hospital, and physician in charge of research on Diabetes at the Boston Lying In Hospital.

The romancing and marrying activities of James S. Berry, blonde Adonis from Pittsfield, who allegedly carried on for the past twelve years on both a domestic and international basis, in which a former Arlington girl was involved, were terminated on Saturday afternoon, when he was seized by police inspectors in his apartment in the Westgate Apartments in Kenmore Square.

Berry was taken into custody on a charge of non-support by his wife the former Yvonne Anderson, of Pittsfield. Berry was arrested as he sat chatting with his pretty brunette "bride," whom police say he married without benefit of divorce in Yokohama on last December 12, and then returned to this country.

Tragic figure in the climax of Berry's romantic activities, is the former Mary Marjorie Darrah, an Arlington girl whom he met in Yokohama. The pair were married in a pretentious "wedding ceremony," following a nine months' courtship.

From his cell in the City Prison Berry reiterated a previous statement made by him: "I thought I was divorced when I told the girl I married in Japan I was. I never heard from my wife and I assumed that she had divorced me. I would (Continued on Page Five)

3 Arlington Youths Indicted For Assault

The Middlesex County Grand Jury, in special session, on Monday indicated three 'teen age Arlington youths on charges of unarmed robbery and assault, with intent to murder James Fannon, 40, an Arlington Contractor, on November 22nd.

The young men indicted are Edmund J. McNamara, 17; Michael J. Cloherty, 18, and Joseph P. Doyle, 19.

The three youths, it is charged, attacked Fannon in an alley in North Cambridge and robbed him of 22 cents.

Fannon is still in a critical condition at Cambridge City Hospital, where his condition is reported as slightly improved. He has been under an oxygen tent almost constantly.

The contractor suffered a compound fracture of the skull, a broken nose, broken jaw, crushed larynx, punctured lung and three fractured ribs.

The indicted youths are being held in East Cambridge jail in lieu of $20,000 bail each.

"How The Tall Temples"

(A Tribute to Earl A. Ryder)

"How the tall temples, as to meet their gods, ascend the skies."

Somewhat today, pondering the beauty of the stately white edifice, beneath whose sacred arches, the mortal remains of Arlington's beloved citizen and friend, are now receiving the final homage and honors of hundreds of mourning loved ones associates, friends and companions from every walk of life—these words come to mind.

We cannot help but feel that, although sadness fills our hearts in the loss of a devoted husband, a kind father, a faithful friend and companion—akin to the glistening God-ward spire of the church where for so many years he was a cheerful and devoted worker, his spirit now soaring upward, shall ever remain for us a light, a flame, a star, to point us heavenward, while we follow in his footsteps and try to emulate him in word and deed.

To us he needs no eulogy, no funeral oration, no muffled drum, nor epitaph nor word of mortal man, for, although "we mourn and yet shall mourn with every returning spring," we feel he is with us always to lighten our pathway in all good work.

And so, standing upon life's golden strand, shall we, his friends, softly bid him "Bon Voyage," whose bark has now been launched "on the stiller sea, that stretches everlastingly." November 30, 1948

First Snow

Tuesday morning's sun, peering through rose-red clouds shone on a pure white world of magic beauty.

With the last asters and marigolds of our garden still standing as color guard against the ravages of November frost we country dwellers opened our eyes upon a scene of indescribable loveliness.

Our favorite Balm O'Gilead tree, towering on high, though long bereft of leaves, holds court over all in kindly robes of ermine, while nearby, our blue spruce, Norway pine and small evergreen bush and shrub, attendants at the opening of Winter's Court, are gowned in regal white, transforming our world into a fairy kingdom.

Faraway Monadnock, the Twins, and Wachusett, carry the blue-white brilliance into the distant horizons.

To us there is no delight so welcome as the first snow fall. Like the children, we welcome it as Nature's greatest gift. There's no gayer picture, than youngsters frolicking in the first snow.

To the city dweller, however, the first snow presents a very different picture. It marks the official beginning of the long drab period we call winter. To him, it means struggling through drifts, and to-hand combat with the ogre, the family car, shovelling driveways, paths and sidewalks, persistently blocked by fresh onslaughts of the charging city snowplow, the problem of overshoes, mufflers, of snuffles and chills, of overheated homes and oil-breathing interludes.

But New Englanders we are, and have learned to take King Winter in our stride, to mix the bitter with the sweet, to find happiness in these daily manifestations of nature in that delightful homeland we call the Pilgrims' New England.

Let's All Help

In the midst of our happy Christmas planning and merry preparations, let us not forget those for whom the holiday season means extra work, extra worry, and extra hours.

One of the most helpful hints given out by your local Postmaster, relative to the Christmas mail, is for the sender to place his return address at the upper left hand corner of each letter and package.

This will do away with much unnecessary delay, and prevent loss of letters and packages, in case those for whom the mail is intended cannot be located.

Of course, writing addresses plainly, and in ink, instead of pencil, is also a big help, as well as being sure that the proper amount of postage is attached.

But, most important, the return address of the sender will prevent loss and disappointment.

Little things to remember, but they loom big in the handling of the big holiday mail, and help make the Christmas season a bit brighter and merrier for the overworked post office folk.

Arlington Man Weds Roslindale Girl

Miss Vincenza Nina Nobilio, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Zopito Nobilio, of 162 Cornell Street, Roslindale, became the bride Sunday afternoon at three o'clock, in the Sacred Heart Church, Roslindale, of Seaman Second Class Anthony Charles Ferrante, U. S. Navy, son of Mr. and Mrs. James Ferrante, of 57 Broadway, Arlington.

The bridegroom is a member of the navy band stationed at the Charlestown naval base. A wedding reception followed the ceremony, at the Hotel Beaconsfield Brookline.

Many Sportsmen Enjoy Crosby Sports Program

Many outstanding sportsmen of this section attended the Crosby School PTA meeting held Tuesday evening November 23rd, when the new public address system was tried out.

Among the guests present were noted many former Arlington high star athletes. Johnny Kelley, famous Olympic track star, was one of the speakers, and others included the following:

Eddie Waitkus, first baseman for the Chicago Cubs; Pat O'Brien, ex-Arlington High catcher and team mate of Waitkus Bob Mee, Arlington High, Boston College and Boston Olympic hockey defenseman, now Eastern College hockey official; Paul Dorrington, former Holy Cross football center and now football coach at Woburn High; and Dan McFadden, former Arlington High and Boston College football end and now Arlington Superintendent of Parks and Recreation.

Following the speeches a very interesting round table discussion was held, with a question and answer period. Mrs. McFadden acting as moderator. Refreshments and a social hour followed the exercises.

ARLINGTON HADASSAH DONOR LUNCHEON

Mrs. George Rossyn president of the New England Region of Hadassah, will address the Arlington Chapter Hadassah at the organization's Third Annual Donor Luncheon at 1 p. m., Wednesday, December 8th, at the Balinese Room of the Hotel Somerset.

Mrs. Myer Berman, chairman of the luncheon committee, will preside. The program will include a presentation by Mrs. Joseph Gitter the life story of the immortal Jerome Kern, with selections by the famous composer. A candle-lighting ceremony will be presented under the direction of Mrs. David Banen, vice-president of the Arlington chapter.

The proceeds of this year's luncheon will be used to meet the great emergency in health, medical and hospital needs of the people in the State of Israel during these historic days.

Other luncheon committee members: Mrs. David Banen, Mrs. Louis Blauer, Mrs. Samuel Doctoroff, Mrs. Samuel Gilman, Mrs. David Govenar, Mrs. Milton Herman, Mrs. Eli Jacobs, Mrs. Harry Karp, Mrs. Charles Kellum, Mrs. Hyman Kreem Mrs. Leon Robbins, Mrs. Alvin Rose, Mrs. Mace Ruderman, Mrs. Isaac Sholklin, Mrs. Morris Zellin.

Attend Local Artist Exhibit

On Sunday afternoon, November 28th, many Arlingtonians enjoyed the work of an Arlington artist displayed at a Fine Arts tea, sponsored by the Arlington Woman's club, held under the direction of the Art Committee, Mrs. Walter A. Coffey, chairman. The Robbins Library and Galleries were thrown open to the public from four until six.

The music was furnished by the Philharmonic string quartette, under the direction of Mrs. C. Rodney Sage, chairman of the Music Committee. The pourers were Mrs. Leroy G. Shaw and Mrs. John K. Berry, Jr.

REPRESENTS TUFTS ALUMNI AT DEDICATION

Mr. Franklin J. Lane, of Drexel avenue, represented the Tufts Alumni council at the recent dedication of the Tufts Yacht club's new clubhouse on upper Mystic Lakes. His son, James B. Lane, is the commodore of the club, while another son, Franklin Jr., is among its most active members. Mr. Lane has played a distinguished part in the organization of the club, and has worked hard to make the campaign for the new fine quarters a possibility.

Entering the freshman class at Pembroke College, at Brown University, is Miss Jane L. McIntyre, the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John E. McIntyre, of 7 Sheffield West. She is a recent graduate of the Winchester High School.

The Oman Bennetts Anniversary Friday

Congratulations and best wishes were received by Mr. and Mrs. Oman E. Bennett, of 125 Hemlock street, Arlington, from their many friends who celebrated their 52nd wedding anniversary on Friday, November 26th.

Although no special festivities were planned by this popular local couple, they went to Worcester for the Thanksgiving holidays, to be with their daughter Charlotte, Mrs. Paul A. Cameron and family of that city. Their other children include a son, William R. Bennett and wellknown treasurer of the Arlington Five Cent Savings Bank in Arlington Centre. Another son, Austin Oman Bennett, was one of the casualties of the First World War. There are, in addition to Mrs. Cameron, three other daughters: Grace, who married Harvey Rice, Ethel, who is Mrs. Leonard P. Chamberlain, of Belmont and Betty who is Mrs. Peter Gray, of Belmont.

Mr. Oman E. Bennett has been associated in an executive capacity with the Arlington Five Cent Savings Bank for more than a quarter of a century, and is well-known around town for his genial personality and unfailing courtesy to his clients and friends at the bank.

Mrs. Bennett was one of eight children born to Mr. and Mrs. John Rodin and the family resided in the Arlington Hgts. district for many years. The Press extends its congratulations and best wishes for many more years of happiness, for the popular Arlington couple.

PARENT EDUCATION MEETING IS HELD

The first Parent Education Meeting of Brackett Parent Teacher Association was held on November 16th under the direction of Mrs. Irving T. Lovell, Chairman. This was a Book Fair, the books being loaned by New England News Company and our Robbins Library. There was a display of phonograph records and albums for children furnished by Farrington's. The afternoon program for the children in the school was highlighted by a talk by Miss Sarah A. Beard, Consultant of the Massachusetts Division of Public Libraries. The evening session for the parent will include a talk entitled "The New Look in Children's Books" by Mrs. E. Warren Heaps, formerly of Robbins Library, and a motion picture "It's all Yours" featuring the voice of Ralph Bellamy. Refreshments and social period concluded the meeting.

BIBLE CLASS DEDICATES NEW CLASS ROOM

The Philaethea Bible Class of Trinity Baptist Church recently dedicated a new class room, "The Upper Room". Mrs. Isabella Wells, Class President, presided over the meeting. The dedicatory service was led by Mrs. Catherine Higgins, and the Pastor, Rev. Lewis W. Williamson, accepted the new room on behalf of the Church.

Mrs. Natalie Wallace and Mrs. Miriam Williamson, sang a duet, "The Beautiful Garden of Prayer," accompanied by Miss Marjorie Odell at the piano.

Among the invited guests were the Philaethea women from Tremont Temple several State Officers of Philaethea, and a Negro Quartet, from the Church of Personal Experience, Roxbury. This group of singers under the direction of Miss Lucy Hunter, entertained and inspired all present with several outstanding Gospel songs.

At the close of this inspiring service, refreshments were served by Trinity's Philaethea Class.

TROOP FIVE

Recently the newly re-organized revitalized and streamlined Troop Committee, met at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Dick, 57 Quincy street. The new committee spearheaded by the new Scoutmaster Elliott Dudley, and its new Chairman, Harold Martin gave evidence that a good start was being made to again re-establish Troop 5 as an outstanding Troop in the District. The troop is particularly fortunate in having as a SM Mr. Dudley, who brings to the troop a wealth of scouting knowledge and experience, together with a keen understanding of the underlying ideals and purposes of scouting, which will assure for the boys under his leadership the best there is in scouting. During the meeting plans and preparations were made for: A cook-out at Camp Oak Saturday December 4th when the troop cabin will be "winterized". On December 14th the Comm., has been invited to attend a Christmas party of the Auxiliary at the home of R. McSorley. December 16th the troop party will be held at the school, when it is planned to provide entertainment that will be of interest to all as well as the usual party program by the boys, also the troop will again provide its seasonal "Good deed". At the conclusion of the meeting the hostess served delicious refreshments, those present were John Boles, Mal Gavin, Herb Dick Elliott Dudley, Harold Martin, Art Nickerson, Ed Okerlund and Bruce Young.

ON HONOR ROLL AT ST. AGNES SCHOOL

John J. Maguire, 8 years old, son of Mr. and Mrs. John J. Maguire, of 192 Rindge Avenue, Cambridge has been named one of the honor pupils of his class at St. Agnes school in Arlington. He has been a student at this school ever since he started his schooling, and has achieved an enviable record of consistently high marks in his studies. He is the grandson of Mrs. John J. Maguire, of 13 Higgins street, Arlington.

COUPLES CLUB OBSERVES ANNIVERSARY

The Trinity Baptist Couples Club of East Arlington celebrated its second anniversary Sunday night at a meeting held in the Trinity Baptist Church, at which Robert Murray, president of the Children's Haven, Boston, was the guest speaker. A social hour with refreshments followed the address.

Betrothal

The betrothal of Miss Barbara Louise Pearson, and Everett Lennox Reed, Jr., has just been announced by the parents of the bride to be, Mr. and Mrs. Harold T. Pearson, of Somerville. Calvary Methodist Fair To Be Repeated On Sat., Dec. 4

For the first time in the history of the church, the annual church fair which was held on Wednesday, November 17th, will be repeated by popular request on Saturday afternoon, December 4, from three until eight o'clock. Despite the very inclement weather of November 17 a large number of customers patronized the fine array of booths, filled with attractive hand made articles of all kinds, for Christmas and holiday giving. The tempting display of home cooked foods also proved very popular. For the "repeat performance," however, the committee has announced that the special luncheon and supper will be omitted, but that the regular Saturday night baked bean supper sponsored by the Paquinose group will be held.

Much credit for the success of the fair goes to Mrs. George A. Hill, Jr., and her large committee of hardworking church members.

Committee Named For New Year's Party

Although 1949 is six weeks away, the Huntington Ave., branch of the Boston Y. M. C. A. is making preparations to give the New Year a joyous welcome. Waldo Booth, 22 Chestnut St., Waban, advisor to the Dolphin Club at the "Y" will be chairman of the committee for the Y's annual New Years' Eve party.

Other committee members chosen to represent various program groups at the "Y" are: Jennie Cameron, 30 Ballow Ave., Dorchester; Viola Stewart, 175 Shelton Rd., Quincy; of the Sunday Afternoon Club; French Bailey, 17 Trull St., Dorchester; of the "Y" staff; June Deedy, 98 Fisher Ave., Roxbury; Bob Yonis 23 Arlington St., Watertown; and Tom Martin, 47 Maywood St., Roxbury, all representing the Youth Division.

Red Cross Sponsors Free Health Courses

Harvey H. Bundy, Boston lawyer and member of the Commission on the Organization of the Executive Branch of the Government, was re-elected to his third term as chairman of the Boston Metropolitan Chapter, American Red Cross at the 33rd annual meeting of the organization.

William E. Chamberlain, executive director of the Metropolitan Chapter, reported that in the past year 16,861 certificates were issued in Red Cross Health Services here. These health courses, which are given without charge to local residents include First Aid, Accident Prevention, Nutrition and Home Nursing.

In the Home Service department which gives aid and information to servicemen, veterans and their families, 16,384 services were rendered during the past year, Chamberlain said.

Other items in the report include information that 2,624 pints of blood were collected in 44 visits of the Red Cross Bloodmobile last year in Chapter territory.

More than 272,000 volunteer hours in military, civilian and veterans hospitals, blood centers, sewing rooms and at chapter headquarters were contributed by 3,485 active volunteers.

Junior Red Cross enrollment in 480 schools reached 189,471 pupils who produced 99,438 articles for settlement houses, hospitals and overseas use.

Masons To Hear Rev. R. E. Leslie

At the regular meeting of Russell Lodge, A. F. & A. M., on December 8th, the after dinner speaker is to be Rev. Robert E. Leslie of Auburndale, a Chaplain at the Boston State and Boston Psychopathic Hospitals. His talk will include personal experience in his work among mental patients in the State Hospitals. A question and answer period will be conducted at the close of the talk, in accordance with Rev. Leslie's usual custom.

Arlington Children To Send Christmas Boxes Overseas

Children in 10 Arlington schools are participating in a Junior Red Cross project to send 4,000 gift boxes overseas in time for Christmas distribution, according to Mrs. Reginald S. Parker, director of the Boston Metropolitan Chapter Junior Red Cross.

"The boxes, which in past years have gone to 28 different countries, are being packed by the children with toys and practical articles," said Mrs. Parker. Each box includes marbles, ball, crayons, pencils, toothbrush paste and soap. In addition the boxes also include a wide variety of small toys which may vary from jacks to dolls dresses and plastic scissors.

Many of the youngsters make articles for the boxes and warm mittens, an apron or a hat will be tucked into many boxes. Each gift package includes the names of the children who helped fill the box. "In February, March and April, the children usually send back 'Thank you letters,' Mrs. Parker said.

"Last year many schools received mementos from the children who received packages. This pleased the youngsters who participated in this practical good-will project", she said.

The Arlington schools contributing are: the Brackett, Crosby, Cutter, Hardy, Junior High Center, Locke, Parmenter, Russell and Pierce.

Unitarian Laymen Hold Banquet

The laymen of the First Parish Unitarian group enjoyed their annual November banquet on Monday with a New England boiled dinner, served in the true New England tradition as the Piece de resistance. The guest speaker was Mr. Harley Rice, business manager of the New England Sanitarium who gave a most interesting talk on a "Trip to Rio," which was illustrated with many colored slides.

High School Pupils Commended For Fine Work In Mailing Seals

The pupils and teachers of the Arlington high school, who recently were responsible for preparing the 1948 Christmas seals material which were mailed out to Arlington homes last week, are recipients of many words of praise around town for their assistance and co-operation in this splendid cause.

Chairman of the local Tuberculosis Committee, Mr. Harry T. Fox, 430 Massachusetts avenue, has commended the group for their fine work, and especial thanks go to teachers, Mr. W. Ray Burke, Miss Regina Ahern, Miss Glenna Kelley and Mr. Raymond S. Morrill, the principal who gave extensively of their time and thought to the project.

The pupils, too, come in for a large share of appreciation, and they have aided in this work over a number of years. The proceeds from the sale of these Christmas Seals from the sale of Christmas Seals and control of tuberculosis by the local tuberculosis committee and the Middlesex Health Association.

Post Election Survey Shows Truman Personality And "New Deal" Dictated Most Votes

Tally of letters received by the News Department of radio station WCOP in its survey to find out why people voted as they did in the Presidential election, shows that Truman personality and New Deal policies carried the most weight with his supporters in the Greater Boston area.

Personality traits led all other reasons for voting for the President, with the first three reasons the feeling that he favored the common man, liking his sincerity and humility, and liking for his courage, in that order. Feeling that Truman would carry on New Deal policies, and that the Republicans had evaded the issues in the campaign carried equal weight with 16.6 percent of those replying. Other major reasons for a Truman vote were holding the 80th Congress responsible for current troubles, and blaming the Republicans for high prices.

Dewey supporters replied that their votes were dictated by the conviction that Dewey was a good administrator, opposition to New Deal policies, and the feeling that it was time for a change, in that order.

Tabulation of the WCOP "Why I Voted As I Did" replies follows:

Voted For Truman Because	Percent	Reason
27.9	Thought Truman favored the common man.
22.6	Liked Truman sincerity, humility.
20.5	Liked Truman courage.
16.6	Thought Truman would carry on the New Deal.
16.6	Thought Republicans evaded the issues.
15.3	Blamed 80th Congress for current troubles.
11.1	Blamed Republicans for high prices.
7.9	Thought Republicans supported big business.
6.8	Wanted rent control continued.
6.8	Resented Dewey overconfidence.
6.8	Thought Truman deserved another chance.
5.0	Liked Truman foreign policy.
4.7	Thought Truman more experienced.
3.2	Disliked Taft-Hartley law.
3.2	Voted For Dewey Because:
36.4	Thought Dewey a good administrator.
31.4	Opposed New Deal policies.
28.9	Thought it was time for a change.
10.7	Admired dignity of Dewey campaign.
9.1	Thought Truman incompetent.

LOCAL GIRL . . .

not have gotten myself in this difficulty if I thought I was still married."

Miss Darrah, who once served as a hostess in the cocktail lounge of a Back Bay Hotel, revealed that she went to Japan and made enough money to purchase the ladies apparel shop in the lobby of the hotel, when she returned here as a "bride."

She allegedly stated that while Berry was carrying on his romance with her in Japan, he told her he was twice married, but had been divorced by both of his wives. She said that she believed his story, and agreed to become his "wife." The couple were married by the United States vice consul in Yokohama, on December 12, 1947, and left for the United States three days later, arriving here shortly before Christmas.

The last his wife had seen of him was when he returned to his home in Pittsfield in 1948 from the army, where he remained but a brief time, and then suddenly drove away in a brand new automobile, without leaving any forwarding address, Mrs. Berry stated it is said.

The wife further stated "It took a long time, but he finally was caught." She revealed that after her husband dropped from sight, she was forced to seek relief from the city, in order to provide food and clothing for herself and her two children.

Mrs. Berry, apparently holds no bitterness toward the girl he "married" in Japan. "The girl is just a victim of his smooth talk, and I do not attach any blame to her. I believe her if she said my husband told her he was divorced."

Berry has allegedly admitted that he is deeply in love with Miss Darrah, and that, once his difficulties are ironed out and his wife obtains her freedom, he wishes to return to Miss Darrah and be married legally.

Mrs. Berry, however, has allegedly indicated that her husband is due for a keen disappointment, if he expects her to sue for divorce. Told that he would let her get a divorce, Mrs. Berry is said to have replied, "He's assuming again, isn't he?"

a half sister, Mrs. Elizabeth Chillingworth of Wallingford, Conn., also survive.

The funeral services held from the First Parish Unitarian Church, on Tuesday afternoon, at three o'clock, were largely attended, representatives from all the town offices social organizations and various club groups being represented. The officiating clergymen were Rev. John Nicol Mark, pastor, and Rev. Lawrence L. Barber.

Burial was on Wednesday at Northampton, Massachusetts.

Steak Dinner At Spanish Shop

Regis Spanish Shop at East Arlington, was the scene recently of a very enjoyable evening feast given under the direction of Mr. Charles Mouradian, when the latter served a steak dinner to almost fifty guests, most of them football players from the University of Massachusetts, in honor of their victory that afternoon over Tufts, resulting in a 13 to 13 tie.

Christmas Club Payments Higher Than Ever Before

Checks totalling more than $441,000, the largest amount ever mailed out by the Arlington Five Cents Savings Bank and the Arlington National Bank to their members of the Christmas Clubs, most of the checks going to Arlington residents, may presage a record high in retail store sales for this Christmas.

According to a report made by Edward C. Hildreth, treasurer of the Arlington National Bank, this year's Christmas Club checks amounted to $75,000 as compared with $65,000 last year, while the Arlington Five Cents Savings Bank mailed out more than 6200 Christmas Club checks, totalling more than $366,000 to its club members. This is in excess of last year's total in the amount of $355,665, this establishing a new record.

Many local stores will be open every Friday and Saturday evening from now until Christmas, and beginning December 10, most of the local stores will be open every evening.

In keeping with the Christmas spirit, arrangements are now well under way, under the direction of the Chamber of Commerce, to illuminate the business center with multi-colored lights during the Christmas shopping season, as was the case last year.

Arlington folk are urged to do their shopping at home, where stocks are complete, and stores are filled with new and attractive Christmas gift ideas for all members of the family. The merchants of the town are sparing no time or pains to make it well worth your while to spend your Christmas gift shopping hours here in Arlington.

The new Christmas Clubs for 1949 are now open, at the local Banks.

Many Local Physicians Hear Latest Medical Techniques

Many of the town's leading physicians were numbered among New England's 12,000 physicians, who were invited to hear fourteen of the country's leading medical experts outline the very latest medical and surgical techniques in the Hub recently.

The medical men assembled at the Copley-Plaza for the seventh annual session of the New England Post-graduate Assembly under the sponsorship of the medical societies of the six New England states. The third day of the meeting was devoted to the attendance at clinics in Greater Boston hospitals where the physicians saw at the bedside the practical application of the methods of treatment previously discussed.

"This program," says Dr. John F. Conlin, secretary of the Assembly executive committee, "has been arranged primarily to give the busy physician a rapid review of the latest advances in the diagnosis and treatment of disease."

"Still more important is the consumer public's right and desire to have the general practitioner keep abreast of the swift-flowing stream of medical progress. This can be done through intensive technical sessions such as the Assembly. It is useless to point with pride to high standards of medical care unless every effort is made to make the best possible medical care available to everyone who wants it."

Dr. Conlin stressed that all of the physicians, whether or not members of a medical society, will be welcome at the Assembly.

The speakers discussed most recent improvements in the diagnosis and treatment of cancer, peptic ulcer, heart and virus diseases, fractures, hormones, tetanus immunization, Rh blood factor, diseases of the eye, certain obstetrical problems and the use of new pain-relieving drugs.

Letters To The Editor

Dear Sir:

Due to the numerous calls we have had concerning a dance to be held in Arlington by the Disabled American Veterans, I would like to warn the people of Arlington that Chapter No. 49, Disabled American Veterans is not connected in any way with this dance.

Yours truly,
Lee Morris
Commander No. 49

November 26, 1948

Dear Sir:

Through the generous support of the Red Feather Campaign in your columns you have given hope to thousands of little children and all ages of people who depend upon Greater Boston's Red Feather services.

Our warm thanks go to you and everyone who has helped in this vital annual appeal to maintain the high standards of our community life.

Sincerely yours,
Powell M. Cabot
1949 Campaign Chairman

Arlington Woman Wins Home Laundry On WCOP Broadcast

Mrs. Helen Avjean, 80 Franklin Street, Arlington, was given a special reason to be thankful on Thanksgiving Day when she won a GE home laundry, wringer washer and ironer, and a GE sandwich grill because she knew the answer to the "Mystery Jingle" of the "GE Boston Tea Party" broadcast on station WCOP and WCOP-FM.

Mrs. Avjean was next door at mother's for Thanksgiving dinner when she heard emcee Stan Shaw calling an Arlington number on the "Tea Party" broadcast. She dashed home to her phone and successfully identified the subject of the "Mystery Jingle", to win the "Tea Chest prize."

Mrs. Avjean appeared on the November 26th broadcast of the "Tea Party" to receive her awards. The "Boston Tea Party" airs every Monday through Friday, 1:30 to 2:30 p. m. over WCOP.

"Bragg about Boston", popular WCOP interview program, will make a return engagement to Arlington on December 10. Nelson will talk with local folks passing by the Liggett's Drug Store at 327 Broadway at 1:00 p. m., that day. The interviews will be broadcast on WCOP at 4:45 p. m.

"Bragg about Boston" is heard every Monday through Friday at the same time on WCOP.

Military Rites Held For Vet Of Two Wars

The funeral services for John J. Fielding, 53, of 28 Egerton road, Arlington, head porter of the Massachusetts Eye and Ear Infirmary who bequeathed his eyes to the infirmary's eye bank shortly before his death last Saturday, at the Massachusetts General hospital were held on Tuesday morning from the D. W. Grannan and Sons Funeral Home, 378 Massachusetts avenue, Arlington, with a solemn high mass of requiem celebrated at nine o'clock in St. Jerome's church, Arlington. He was the husband of Madeline L. (Oestricger) Fielding.

A veteran of both World Wars, he was accorded full military honors. In the first World War, he served in the United States Navy, while in the recent war, he was a member of the Merchant Marine. Infirmary surgeons stated Sunday that by utilizing the corneas of the bequeathed eyes, they are able to restore sight to many blind persons.

A native of Taunton, Mr. Fielding had resided in Arlington for more than twenty years, and was a member of Arlington Post No. 1775, Veterans of Foreign Wars.

He leaves, in addition to his wife one daughter, Miss Madeline L. Fielding and three sisters, Mrs. Alice Sullivan of Watertown, Mrs. May Rawlins, of Boston, and Mrs. Nellie Sheehan, of Taunton.

Going-Away Party Held For Arlington Couple

Mrs. Frank Bowes and mother, Mrs. George Stolorow, of Mott street, were guests of honor at a farewell dinner given by neighbors and friends at one of the well-known out of town restaurants recently. Many friends and relatives of the Bowes family attended.

The Bowes family have moved to Washington street, in Winchester.

ROBINHOOD TO BE PRESENTED

Three performances of the play "Robin Hood", will be presented by the Tributary Theatre Players for the youngsters of Arlington. This will be the first in the series of fine art presentations, a project sponsored by the Arlington Council of Parent-Teacher Association.

Graduates From Air Force School

Pfc. Robert I. Bolton, son of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph W. Bolton, 15 Wilcrest street, a graduate of Arlington high school, was graduated recently from the Air Force Communications school at Scott Air Force Base, in Illinois. He has been on active duty with the air force since his enlistment on October 21, 1947.

All three performances of the story of "Robin Hood" will take place in The Arlington Junior High East auditorium.

On Friday, December 10, 1948 at 7:30 p. m. there will be a performance for pupils attending Grades 8-9. On Saturday, December 11th the play will be given at 10:30 A. M. for boys and girls in Grades 4-5 and at 2:30 in the afternoon the curtain will rise once again for youngsters in Grades 6-7.

There will be a limited number of tickets available at the door for these performances.

SPECIAL TOWN MEETING IS CALLED FOR DECEMBER 27

The Arlington Board of Selectmen announced on Wednesday that as a result of a petition received by the Board of Selectmen from more than two hundred registered voters of Arlington, requesting a special town meeting be held on Monday evening, December 27, at the Robbins Memorial Town Hall.

The petition asks the insertion in the warrant of two articles as therein required providing for the payment of extra special compensation for the year 1948, and for special compensation for January, February and March, 1940 to enable elected and appointed officers of the town exclusive of school teachers to meet the present abnormal increase in the cost of living.

The Board met at their offices on Monday evening, November 29th, for the purpose of drawing up the town warrant.

Universalist Church Fair Brings Out Large Crowds

The annual fair of the universalist church held in the parish hall and vestry of the church, on Wednesday, December 1, brought out a large and enthusiastic attendance of pre-holiday shoppers. Delightful articles for early Christmas shopping went on sale promptly at the opening of the event at 10:30 a. m.

The luncheon for business people, teachers and home-makers, served between the hours of 11:30 and 1:30 also proved very popular, and the committee was greatly pleased at the cordial reception accorded it. The dinner served at 6:00 also was attended by many family groups, and the large audience stayed on through the evening, for the highly amusing acts of entertainment, including the amusing satire on radio programs, entitled "Unconscious Ether" which was featured on the vestry stage at eight o'clock.

Legislature Issues Statement Re Date For Filing Petitions

The Clerk of the Massachusetts House of Representatives has issued the following notice:

"To the Members-elect of the General Court:

Your attention is called to Joint Rule 12, which provides that petitions filed after the first Wednesday in December preceding the convening of the General Court shall be referred to the next annual session.

The last day and hour for filing petitions for the 1949 session of the General Court is FIVE O'CLOCK P. M., WEDNESDAY, DECEMBER 1, 1948.

This early filing date makes it possible for substantially all bills to be in print before the convening of the General Court in January, so that committees may proceed immediately with their hearings.

Members are urged to file their petitions as early as possible and not wait until the last day, in order that the bills accompanying the same may be forwarded to the printers as soon as possible."

Residents of Arlington who desire to have petitions filed for the 1949 session of the General Court, should communicate without delay with the Representatives of their respective districts, who are as follows:

Hollis M. Gott, Henry E. Keenan 28th Middlesex District.
Joseph F. McEvoy, Jr., T. Edward Corbett, 25th Middlesex District.

WHERE THERE'S A WALL THERE'S A WAY

No painted wall can resist the blandishments of a spoonful of Allen's BARCOLENE in a gallon of water—and you'll find you need fewer changes of water to clean an entire room, including the floor. BARCOLENE is guaranteed to remove dirt and grime more easily—or your money back! Use for rugs and carpets, the family wash and any upholstery that's safe in water.

1 lb. size 35c. 2 lbs.—65c. 5 lbs.—$1.25.
